

Diamond Power Index® Certification Program

About the Diamond Power Index® (DPI®) Certification Program

The Diamond Power Index® (DPI®) Certification Program gives you the tools and knowledge you need to develop the leaders you support.

Our certification program will not only provide you with the technical knowledge to use the Diamond Power Index®, it will also change the way you understand power - not only your clients' but also your own. The framework of Power Intelligence® will help you understand the key dynamics of power, identify key factors that lead to the derailment of leaders, learn the core competencies for using power effectively.

As a certified practitioner, you can prepare a leader for the next level, develop your high-performers, optimize the performance of your leadership team, and ensure that your leaders are creating a healthy and thriving team culture.

Get access to exclusive content, advanced training opportunities, and instructional materials to use with your clients.

The Diamond Power Index® (DPI®) Instrument

Authored by Julie Diamond after 25 years of research on power across sectors and industries, the Diamond Power Index® is a scientifically valid instrument that has been normed by more than 500 leaders from 62 unique organizations, spanning 12 different countries.

The instrument has both a self-assessment as well as a multi-rater component to it. The self-report component provides insight about a leader's sense of personal power. The multi-rater component measures a leader's use of power and its impact on others. View Sample Report here

Program Structure

- The certification program will incorporate a learning track as well as a practice track; both will run in parallel.
- The learning track will be delivered as a combination of virtual trainer-led and self-managed e-learning content.
- In the practice track, you will be guided to enrol a client for administering the DPI® assessment, interpret the report and provide feedback to the client.
- Finally, you will have an exclusive one-on-one session with the trainer where the learning and practice tracks will be integrated.

Program Schedule

Virtual Session 1 (1 hr): Introduction and Orientation

Virtual Session 2 (3 hrs): Module 1: Power Intelligence Workshop: Introduction to the concepts and methods of Power Intelligence® as well as the competencies for using power effectively.

Virtual Session 3 (3 hrs): Module 2: Administering the DPI®: This module will give you an overview of the assessment components and reports, and introduce best practices for preparing leaders, teams and organisations to use the DPI®

Virtual Session 4 (3 hrs): Module 3: Interpreting the DPI® results: In this module you will learn how to interpret results and coach leaders. You will also learn the technical and administrative aspects of using the DPI® and Power Intelligence® in your organisation.

Once you enroll for the program, you will receive your pre-work materials and guidelines for the learning and the practice tracks. There will be learning and practice assignments to complete between successive virtual sessions. After the sessions are completed, you will need to schedule your one-on-one individual session with the trainer. Upon successful completion of the program, you will be eligible to purchase and use the DPI® assessments and reports through Anahat. You will also receive a certificate from Diamond Leadership.
